

Spring 2024

February 2, Campus Ctr. 235	Career Exploration Pathways with an Advanced Degree Focus and NSF/REU Applications Presenters: McNair Alumni and Dr. Misra	11; 30am -1:00pm
March 10-16	Spring Break
March 22 Campus Ctr. 235	Financial Literacy Workshop -Real Money 101 Provided by: Higher Education Student Assistance Authority (HESAA) Presenter: John Lacovelli	11:30am – 1:00pm
April 5 Campus Ctr. 235	Effective Presentations Skills	11:30am – 1:00pm
April 10 Campus Ctr. Ball A	Dana Knox Student Research Showcase (Provost Office)	1:00pm – 4:00pm
April 30, Campus Ctr. 235	Graduating Seniors Recognition Ceremony McNair Staff & Scholars	11:30am – 1:00pm
April 30	Last Day of Classes/ Friday Schedule
May 1 & 2	Reading Days
May 3 - 9	Final Exam Period
May TBA	Commencement

Note: McNair Programs are required to promote (STEM) education mandated by the Department of Education (DOE), (Competitive Preference Priority 1 (CPP1). This requirement can be filled by attending two (2) departmental seminars/workshops or two (2) Albert Dorman Honors College Colloquium) each semester. Departmental seminars/workshops will be posted on NJIT Website as they are announced by the various departments. An evaluation forms must be completed and submitted to McNair office at the end of the seminar/workshop. The evaluation form can be found on the McNair Website www.mcnair.njit.edu